

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Ancient Greek Influences
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Plato
Aristotle

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Mind, Body, Soul
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Dualism
Materialism

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Cosmological Argument
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
1 st Way
2 nd Way
3 rd Way

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Teleological Argument
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Aquinas and Paley
Hume's objections
FR Tennant

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Ontological Argument
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Anselm and Gaunilo
Descartes and Kant

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Religious Experience
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Union with a greater power
Psychological explanations
Physiological explanations

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Theodicy
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Augustine
Irenaeus/Hick

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

God's omnipotence
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Descartes
Aquinas, Vardy

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

God's eternity
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Timeless
Everlasting

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

God's benevolence
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Christian views
The problem of evil
The problem of miracles

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Religious Language I
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Via Negativa
Analogies
Symbols

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Religious Language II
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Verificationism
Falsificationism
Language Games

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Natural Law Theory
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
The telos
The four tiers of law and the precepts
Doctrine of Double Effect

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Situation Ethics
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Agape and the six propositions
The four working principles
Conscience

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Kantian Ethics
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Universal Law
End in itself
Kingdom of Ends

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Utilitarianism
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Bentham
Mill
Singer

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Euthanasia
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Natural Law
Situation Ethics

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Business Ethics
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Kantian Ethics
Utilitarianism

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Metaethics
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Naturalism
Intuitionism
Emotivism

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Conscience
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Augustine: Voice of God known intuitively
Aquinas: God-given rational power
Freud: pre-rational function of unconscious mind

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Sexual Ethics
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Natural Law and Kantian Ethics
Situation Ethics and Utilitarianism

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Augustine on Human Nature
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Before and after the Fall
Original Sin and its effects
God's grace

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Afterlife
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Heaven, Hell, Purgatory
Election

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Knowledge of God
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Natural Theology
Revealed Theology

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Jesus Christ
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
God
Liberator
Teacher

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Christian Moral Principles
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Bible
Church
Agape

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Christian Moral Action
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
The cost of discipleship
Duty to God and duty to State
Church as Community

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Pluralism and Theology
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Exclusivism
Inclusivism
Pluralism

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Pluralism and Society
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Inter-faith dialogue & mission
Scriptural Reasoning Movement

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Gender and Society
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Christian teaching on gender roles
Christian responses to contemporary secular views

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Gender and Theology
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Daly
Ruether

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Secularisation
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Dawkins
Freud

1. Write down everything you remember about the topic in the 'cat' column.
2. Turn to the person sitting next to you. Check what they could remember that you've forgotten and write this in the 'robber' column.

Liberation Theology
	Cats What I remember. 	Robbers What I have 'stolen'.
Marxism
Liberation Theology
Catholic Church's response		